Thanks, Alice. Those aren't names that I recognize.

Regards,

Steve

The decontamination technology associated with Volcano Partners is Cement-Lock, a thermal technology developed by Mike Mensinger. There was a Cement-Lock demonstration plant built in Bayonneback when Scott Douglas was involved with the project.

It was good to talk to you. Feel free to call (212-637-4427) or e-mail me any time with questions.
